3. The Chairman welcomed all the trade members.

4. As no agenda points were received in advance, Hon'ble Chairman asked the trade members to discuss if any grievances are being faced.

5. During the meeting following issues were raised by the members of the trade seeking necessary action to resolve the same;

Issue 1: Sh. Shashi Shekhar, representing IOCL, raised the issue that, is it possible to do the berthing and entry inward formality simultaneously to reduce the time gap in berthing of vessel, as vadinar port being a tidal port, and has to berth the vessel in specific favourable type window only. He also mentioned that, Public Notices have been issued by Customs Commissioner of Kandla and Mumbai to reduce the time gap in berthing of vessel and this public notice has been made applicable to all vessels coming in their jurisdiction.

However, same public notice has been issued by Jamnagar Commissioner also but specifically applicable only to container vessel and it has not been made applicable to IOCL crude oil tankers

Discussion: Hon'ble Chairman asked Sh. Shashi Shekhar to submit the self contained detailed representation to the Principal Commissioner, Customs(Preventive) Jamnagar quoting all relevant circulars and notifications which shall be examined by the HQ, Technical Section

[Action: Dy. Commr., Tech, HQ]

6. No other grievance was raised by the members of the trade. The Chairman requested the trade to submit the grievances in advance henceforth.
7. The meeting ended with vote of thanks to the Chair.
8. This is issued with the approval of Hon'ble Principal Commissioner.
